

2021.22 Training

Subject: Healthcare Reform | Talking Points

Starting in 2019, the penalty for not having health insurance will be $0.

Before tax reform was passed, if you did not have health insurance coverage or qualify for an exemption, you were required to pay a penalty on your tax return. In 2016, as many as 4 million taxpayers paid the penalty.

However, you may still be subject to the penalty on your 2018 tax return if you had no health insurance coverage. The tax penalty is the greater of $695 per individual (up to a maximum of $2,085) or 2.5% of your household income, less your filing threshold amount

Key 2020 Open Enrollment dates

The 2022 Open Enrollment Period runs from November 1, 2021, December 15, 2021. If you don't act by December 15, you can't get 2022 coverage unless you qualify for a Special Enrollment Period.

Plans sold during Open Enrollment start January 1, 2022.
